If you are a Supplier supporting Johnson & Johnson Pte. Ltd.'s operations in Thailand, please refer to the communications shared on July 17 for details on the changes to Johnson & Johnson Pte. Ltd.'s Thailand registered address and phone number.

From 12 October 2026, the Bill To information in any new purchase orders will reflect the new name and new company address. Our existing contracts and quality agreements will continue to remain valid. When it is time to amend or sign new agreements, we will update these to reflect our new name and new company address.

It's crucial that we ensure compliance across all documentation to avoid any delays/disruptions to our partnership.

Going forward, please:

1. Issue all invoices relating to your supply of goods and/or services to the Company with the new company name and new company address (see table above) including invoices for any existing open and unfulfilled purchase orders.

Any invoices issued with any incorrect information (such as “old” company name, “old” registered address or incorrect purchase order number) after the Effective Date will be rejected. Kenvue will not be responsible for any delays in payment due to incorrect invoices.

2. Address all new quotations/offers/delivery slip documents relating to your supply of goods and/or services to the Company to the new name and new company address. Cross-Border Shipping documents (BOL & Packing List) including GMP Certificates of Compliance and Certificates of Analysis must be updated to reflect the new name and new company address.

3. Report any data breaches directly to your Kenvue contact.

4. Review and update relevant licenses and certifications under the new name and new company address.

For any queries or assistance, please refer to supplier FAQs or reach out to your regular Kenvue contact.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and your continued support.

We look forward to our continued collaboration.

Yours sincerely

Kenvue LE Name Change Team
